To whom it may concern,

I write to you on behalf of the Victorian Lebanese Community Council Inc. (VLCC) based in Melbourne, Victoria. The VLCC endorses strong positive community relationships, and is committed to working closely with the Victorian Lebanese community, in collaboration with mainstream and ethno-specific community services, government and interested groups, to encourage opportunities for positive contribution and social cohesion.

We are a not-for-profit community council, made up of board members representing a diversity of educational and professional backgrounds. The board is united in goals intended to resource and strengthen the status, emotional and social wellbeing of the Lebanese community in Victoria. The VLCC goals include:

- To encourage stronger relationships between Victorian people of Lebanese background and the wider Victorian community;
- To enhance awareness of the Australian - Lebanese community with an emphasis on promoting balanced and accurate representations;
- To provide information and community education on a broad range of issues to the wider community;
- To act as a consultative body to Government, media and professional organisations, and provide policy advice to Government on all matters affecting the Australian - Lebanese community;
- To research, highlight and promote the achievements and contributions of the Australian-Lebanese people to the wider Australian community;
- To encourage greater participation by the Australian - Lebanese community in Victoria's social and political life;
- To maintain and strengthen coordinated and supportive partnerships with government and non-government organisations, and create networking opportunities;
- To oppose extremism and community division, and reinforce active work towards strengthening community cohesion.

We write to request your support in the goals VLCC aims to achieve via becoming a VLCC Sponsor.
