Did You Know ...

Lebanon is a country that has no more than 10,400 square Kilometres in size, and yet it has:

- 51 Newspapers
- 10 Universities
- 52 Banks (40 Lebanese owned and 13 foreign)
- 15 rivers coming from its mountains
- 18 religious communities
- 1 doctor per 670 persons (Australia has 1 doctor per 400)

Other Interesting Facts

- Lebanon's name comes from the old Semitic word 'Laban' meaning white. It is believed to refer to snow.
- Since the 19th century, an estimate of 16 million Lebanese live outside of Lebanon. Popular destinations include USA, Australia, Canada, France and Brazil.
- Phoenicians lived in Lebanon and were known for their excellent trading ability, & the creation of the first phonetic alphabet.

Who We Are ...

VLCC, is a not-for-profit, non-sectarian community council that supports strong positive community relationships.

We aim to resource and strengthen the emotional and social wellbeing of the Lebanese community.

Our board members bring a diversity of educational and professional expertise.

We seek to work closely with mainstream and ethno-specific services, government and interested groups, to encourage opportunities for positive contribution and social cohesion.

VLCC Board Roles

- Chairperson & Deputy Chairperson
- Secretary & Public Officer
- Treasurer
- Public Relations Officer
- Media Officer
- Youth Officer
- Education Officer
- Events Coordinator
- Project & Grants Coordinator
- Marketing & Fundraising Coordinator

VLCC Goals & Objectives

- Encourage stronger relationships between Victorian people of Lebanese background and the wider Victorian community.
- Enhance awareness of the Australian-Lebanese community to promote balanced and accurate representations.
- Provide information and community education on relevant and current issues.
- Act as a consultative body to Government, media and professional organisations, and provide policy and practice advice on all matters affecting the Australian-Lebanese community.
- Research, highlight and promote the achievements and contributions of the Australian-Lebanese people.
- Endorse greater participation by the Australian-Lebanese community in Victoria's social, cultural, and political lifestyle.
- Maintain and strengthen supportive partnerships with government and non-government organisations, and create networking opportunities.
- Oppose extremism and community division, and reinforce active work towards strengthening community cohesion.
